Peter Maddalone

Class of 1973

Peter remembers how proud he and his classmates were of CHS, the massive PEP rallies, and players dressed in their uniforms on game days. He joined the U. S. Navy after high school graduation and traveled the world. After being discharged, he attended SUNY Farmingdale earning an A.A.S. In 1983, he purchased Albert's Pizza which he manages and has expanded to other locations throughout Long Island. He helped start and is the Founding President of the Copiague Chamber of Commerce. He is proud of his involvement in shaping our community and representing Copiague in a positive way. He and his wife, Debbie, have two daughters.
